

As a wisconsin resident, I have already requested that my family not receive telemarketing calls. The state has passed the law to uphold this request. Now, I find out that "big business" wants to interfere with my personal time. I guarantee you that I will not be a patron for businesses wanting to invade my space. Leave me alone.